Little Leaders of KCK

Meet Our Teachers

Ms. Lillian is the Lead Teacher in Purple Diamonds. She is a student at Kansas City Kansas Community College pursuing a Liberal Arts degree. She joined our team in 2020 and is very excited about helping our youngest toddlers develop their language and social skills through nursery rhymes and play-based learning.

Ms. Marla is the Lead Teacher in Yellow Stars. She has worked with children for 9 years as a para and an in-home child care provider. She is excited to work with our two-year-olds to develop their vocabulary and social skills while exploring and discovering through play, songs, stories, hands-on activities and theme-based learning.

Ms. Chilla is the Lead Teacher in Red Hearts. She has over four years of experience in early childhood education. She is looking forward to leading a fun and structured learning environment for our youngest preschoolers to develop social skills, early literacy skills, and early math skills through hands-on activities.

Ms. Eryka is our Teacher's Assistant in Red Hearts. She has a bachelor's degree from Montclair State University in New Jersey. She was a Teacher's Assistant through The Buddy Club at her high school and has been a nanny for several years. She is excited to support our Transitional Preschoolers with their vocabulary and social skills while exploring and discovering through play, songs, stories, hands-on activities and theme-based learning.
